

Meeting agenda

How does everyone get a stake in the transition?

GEC Global Meeting, 8th – 9th January 2019
Hilton City Centre, Cape Town, South Africa

We know that the green economic transition is necessary, urgent, and already underway. But we need to ensure that the new green economy improves the lives of ordinary people everywhere - and our meeting will focus on how we can help to make the economies of the future equitable, inclusive, and people-focused.

This year marks a milestone in our evolution as a network. With 7 country programmes now up and running around the world, our partner organisations will be sharing their stories from the frontlines of the green economic transition: evidence of real and positive improvements, with the potential to achieve scale across nations, and change lives.

Co-hosted with our South African partners, The African Centre and Trade & Industrial Policy Strategies (TIPS), we will be taking stock of the global transition and planning our next steps together as the largest civil society movement for fair, green economies.

This year we also hold our meeting back to back with the UN-PAGE Ministerial meeting, on 10 – 11th January, South Africa. If you are interested in attending the PAGE Ministerial, please make sure you have registered for passes here.

Registration & Networking

9.00 – 9.30

Meeting Opening & Welcome

9.30 – 11.00

What is the status of the transition to green economies in Africa?

A closer look at major trends defining the transition in Africa. What is working and what is not? Who is getting a stake? What can be done differently?

11.00 - 11.30

Coffee & Networking

11.30 - 12.30

Stories of change

Hearing stories and solutions of an inclusive and fair transition in action from GEC in Peru, Mongolia, India and the Caribbean. How do we scale up learnings across our network?

12.30 - 13.30

Lunch & Networking

13.30 - 14.40

What is the status of the global transition?

A look at major trends, investment flows and policy change on the global green economy horizon. What do these changes mean for stakeholders? How can we track this transition across different geographies? How do we hold decision makers to account?

14.40 - 15:00

Coffee & Networking

15.00 - 16.30

Dialogues: From citizen movement to public action

Reflection on different experiences of building an adaptive, inclusive transition; how movement inspires policy or works in the absence of policy. What makes GEC Dialogues critical in shaping policy?

16-30- 17:00

The way forward – GEC network at 10

The GEC network 10 years in, and the way forward for the next decade of activity.
